TEAM SAFARILAND DOMINATES 2007 NRA BIANCHI CUP

ONTARIO, Calif. – June XX, 2007 – Safariland, one of the world’s largest suppliers of holsters and duty gear, is honored to announce that three members of Team Safariland, Rob Leatham, Doug Koenig and Mike Voigt, were among the top competitors in several categories at the 2007 NRA Bianchi Cup on May 23-26, 2007 in Columbia, Mo., once again dominating the event with more consecutive wins than any other competition sport shooting team.

“Team Safariland has again proven its unrivaled ability in the sport shooting arena at the 2007 NRA Bianchi Cup,” said Neale Perkins, Founder, Safariland. “Team Safariland has an extraordinary collective résumé, and all members continue to raise the standard of excellence by illustrating superior teamwork, individual dedication and natural talent. We’re very proud of Rob, Doug and Mike, and the entire Team Safariland for this year’s wins.”

Koenig, who is also the 2005 NRA Bianchi Cup Champion, won first place in the Open class for his 10th time, and also won this year’s Open class shoot-off. Voigt finished fourth overall in the Open class, and was the runner-up in the Open class shoot-off. Voigt is also in his seventh year as USPSA President, adding this year’s accomplishment to his impressive résumé of championship titles.

Leatham won the Metallic class for his 7th time while also winning the Metallic class shoot-off. Additionally, Leatham, who has won more national championship titles than any other competitive shooter with 19 titles, also won this year’s Springfield 1911 Single Stack/USPSA Nationals with his wife Kippi as the first husband and wife team to ever win a national title.
